CERTIFICATION

Hesston College is committed to certain community standards that every student is required to live by, even if Hesston's standards differ from personal conviction or preference. We are committed to remain an alcohol- and drug-free campus; to maintain a community in which relationships are characterized by responsibility and honesty and are not coercive, exploitive, abusive or promiscuous in nature; and to adhere to all local, state and federal laws. By submitting my application, I indicate my commitment to respect and abide by these standards and verify the accuracy of the information provided on this application.

Hesston College does not discriminate on the basis of age, gender, race, color, national ethnic origin, religion, or physical handicap in its standards for admission, education policies, scholarship and loan programs, and does not deny to any students on the basis of age, gender, race, color, national/ethnic origin, religion, or physical handicap any right, privilege, program or activity made available to students at Hesston College. Hesston College does not discriminate in its educational programs or activities on the basis of sex/gender, and prohibits retaliation against any person who opposes discrimination or participates in an investigation or complaint process. Concerns related to Title IX should be directed to the Title IX Coordinator (hesston.edu/employee/monica-miller/), and additional information can be found in the policy (hesston.edu/title-ix).

By signing this application, I certify that I accept the policy above. I also certify that the information contained on this application is accurate to the best of my knowledge.
