Greetings Students,

I pray your Christmas break was restful. As we return to campus, I want to remind you of the Cozen O'Connor visit to our campus this week.

The location for the listening sessions has changed. On January 12 and 13, 2023, Devon Riley of Cozen O'Connor's Institutional Response Group will be on campus to hold listening sessions with students, faculty, and staff. Cozen O'Connor will also be available for individual meetings with those in the community who wish to share their views and experiences privately. The listening session for students is scheduled for Friday, January 13 from 11:00 am - 12:00 pm, in Hesston Mennonite Church Library.

Community members who wish to meet with Cozen O'Connor individually may schedule either a zoom meeting before their campus visit or request an in-person meeting during their visit. Please contact Devon Riley directly at driley@cozen.com to set this up. Community members can also share written feedback with Devon Riley at driley@cozen.com.

Information shared with Cozen O'Connor will not be shared with the College with any personal attribution. Instead, Cozen O'Connor will seek to identify aggregate themes about strengths and challenges in their approach to the prevention and response to reports of sexual and gender-based harassment, violence, and other forms of harassment and discrimination.

I expect the review will be thorough and candid. I look forward to learning more about how we can better serve our students, faculty, and staff. At the conclusion of the review, we will share and discuss the review's results with our campus community.
